DANIEL STIPE CONCERT—JANUARY 21 AT 4PM

On Saturday, January 21, at 4:00 PM, our own Daniel Stipe will offer a piano recital at All Saints! As many of you know, Daniel is equally at home on the piano as he is on the organ. He'll perform Mozart's Piano Sonata No. 10 in C Major, and movements 1 - 4 of Spanish composer Enrique Granados' monumental work "Goyescas". You can find out more about Daniel here, www.danielstipe.com. A reception will follow the concert, and all are welcome. Come support one of our own, and one of Richmond's finest musicians, at this recital.

NOYE'S FLUDDE—SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 11 AT 4PM

Come and join Noye (Noah), his family, and a cast of animals and musicians as they escape from the great flood that encompasses the earth. This colorful, Biblically-inspired opera is based on an early 15th century mystery play, but written for today's audiences—including opportunities to join in song. Don't miss this exceptional presentation—an opportunity the whole family will enjoy! The cast involves members of our choirs, preschools, music students, and members of the community. To join the cast, read below for more information.

Tickets will be available at the door for $10/person, or a family maximum of $100. To further our ministry with Welbourne Church's Food Pantry, a $2 per can discount is available if you bring canned goods to donate (at the door only). If you would like to purchase tickets in advance through Realm, please visit <https://tinyurl.com/nfasctickets> or scan the QR code on this page.

Cast and Crew Opportunities: There are still opportunities for your children to jump in as an animal or for adults to jump in to help in various ways. If you are interested, visit allsaintsrichmond.org/noye-s-fludde for more info including how to sign up.

FEBRUARY EVENSONG + DINNER - SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 5 AT 5PM

Our February Evensong and Community Dinner will be Sunday, February 5 at 5:00 PM. Our Parish Choir and Choral Scholars will be joined by the Richmond Concert Chorale for this special service, with the readings appointed for the Feast of the Presentation (known as Candlemas in some places). The choir will sing Herbert Howells' setting of the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis written for King's College, Cambridge, and Ralph Vaughan Williams setting of Psalm 84, "O How Amiable".

Our meal will be an "organized potluck" - you can sign up to bring something here, tinyurl.com/ascf23evensong Not sure of what to bring? Let Scott Hayes know at shayes@allsaintsrichmond.org, and he can suggest something. We also have a need for someone to be a dinner "host" - which helps to set up the meal to be ready when Evensong is done around 5:45 PM. Help us welcome our guests from the Richmond Concert Chorale!

FLOWER DELIVERY MINISTRY

We are in desperate need of more flower delivery volunteers to help deliver flowers to our homebound parishioners on Sundays after church. This is a very easy way to help brighten someone's day. If you can help, please email Rosemary Jones, rosemarydj@verizon.net and let her know how often you can help and when you can help. You can also sign up on the flower bulletin board in the hallway outside of the church. Thank you!

WORSHIP VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Have you thought about becoming a reader or a Eucharistic minister? Now is the time to jump in! We are looking for more people to read during the 8am and 10:30am services as well as more Eucharistic Ministers. Readers are responsible for reading the lessons and the prayers during the service. This is an easy way to volunteer for worship and is flexible with your schedule. A Eucharistic Minister is someone who helps administer the consecrated bread and wine during communion. They may also take communion to home bound parishioners. There is some training involved to become a Eucharistic Minister. If you are interested in either of these ministries or have any questions, please reach out to The Rev. Penny Nash, pnash@allsaintsrichmond.org
