

May 8, 2024 // Scott Hayes

May is for Music!

All Saints is always full of music! From our choirs, to organists, to violin & flute lessons, and other outside groups, there is rarely a day where something musical isn't happening under our roof. May is especially a time where we host musical events – both ours and from the community. This month, there is truly something for everyone! I encourage you to check out the musical event listings below, and I hope you'll join us for some of these special concerts or services.

The Atlantic Chamber Ensemble

Sunday, May 12, 3:00 pm

The Atlantic Chamber Ensemble is a dynamic group of professional musicians based in Richmond, Virginia comprised of members of the Richmond Symphony and artist faculty at area universities. This concert will feature the music of Samuel Coleridge-Taylor, Luise Adolpha Le Beau, and more!

Richmond Men's Chorus

Friday, May 17, 7:00 pm

The Richmond Men's Chorus will perform their spring concert, featuring a varied selection of music ranging from folk classics to pop standards. Dr. Christopher Reynolds, Director. $20 general admission, $15 senior.

James River Singers

Saturday, May 18, 7:30 pm

Saturday, May 20 at 7:30 PM, the James River Singers present their spring concert featuring the music of Jake Runestad, Appalachian folk tunes, and more. $20 general admission, $15 senior (55+), $10 student

Cabaret with All Saints Choirs

Sunday, May 19, 5:00 pm

Join the choirs and soloists of All Saints Church & Choirs for the music of Broadway and beyond! Music from a variety of shows from Wicked to the Sound of Music. Stay tuned for a sign-up for the potluck dinners. Suggested donation of $10/person to benefit the All Saints Music Education Fund.

Choral Evensong & Choir Recognition

Sunday, June 2, 5:00 pm

Our final choral evensong of the season, sung by the combined choirs of All Saints Church. William Tan, a high school aged student will offer the prelude recital on the organ, and the choir will sing canticles by A. Herbert Brewer & an anthem by Paul Halley. Ryan Tibbetts, guest conductor & Scott Hayes, organ. A community supper will follow the service, with a special presentation about a planned trip to Scotland in 2025 for the choirs and friends of music!